

The Harry Gosling Herald

We usually say 'No sweets, biscuits or cakes in school,' but this week we made an exception to raise money for charity.

Yesterday we held an enormously successful 'World's Biggest Coffee Morning' to raise money for MacMillan Cancer Support.

Everyone—children, parents and staff—enjoyed a delicious mid-morning treat. Thank you Emma for organising the event. It was another fantastic example of wonderful Harry Gosling teamwork in action. Thank you to everyone who donated so generously.

Best wishes
Jennie

COLLECTION FOR FOOD BANK

Following our very successful harvest collection for the local Food Bank last year (where we collected enough food to make 498 meals for 50 people!) we will be collecting again this year. This is a way that we can support many families in crisis in Tower Hamlets. If every Harry Gosling family donates just one item there could be many more families going to bed having eaten at least one meal that day. Please bring your donations next week.

Make sure you keep coming every day on time ! Will you win a ticket for our £200 STAR Attenders prize?

'The book I recommend is...'

Aariz in Crimson class recommends 'Horrid Henry's Jolly Holidays'

The book that I would recommend is 'Horrid Henry's Jolly Holidays'. I would recommend this because it has a lot of hilarious moments. It also has some wonderful jokes which will make you laugh even if you weren't expecting it. I think this book is good for people who love humour since it has lots of it.

HOUSE POINTS

Who will be the winning house this half term?

Everest 1723	Kilimanjaro 1370
Snowdon 1551	Ben Nevis 1906

PARENTS' EVENTS NEXT WEEK

Thank you Janice for arranging all our Year 6 visits to secondary schools this week. It has been SO helpful to be able to look around and see for ourselves.

Hurrah! 'Stay and Play' sessions start again on Wednesday afternoon in the Community Room!

Next Thursday, Emma and Janice will be holding an information session about bullying and our behaviour policy. All welcome at 9.10 in the Community Room.

Thank you, Elizabeth, for reminding us in assembly today about how we can stay safe online. Next Friday Jo will be leading our assembly and we will be finding out how much we have collected for the Food Bank than last year. All welcome at 9 a.m.
