

The Harry Gosling Herald

This week has been 'Unity Week' at Harry Gosling, and it has been an amazing week of learning. We have had a really good chance to explore our theme for the week 'Together, but not the same'. Each pair of year groups focused on inequality around a certain theme, and looked at ways in which people unite (now or in the past) to fight discrimination. The themes were: Years 1 and 4: race, Years 2 and 5: gender and Years 3 and 6: family.

On Wednesday afternoon, we all joined in a peaceful protest for equality. We had been learning how amazing people in history have stood up peacefully for equality, and our march helped us to imagine how it must have felt for them. It helped us to understand the laws about our freedom of expression and assembly in our country, and how powerful it is to be united. Today we shared our learning in a special assembly.

Today we were also visited by a group of headteachers from other parts of London and the UK. They really enjoyed seeing the exciting ways we learn at Harry Gosling.

Best wishes,
Jennie

'The book I recommend is...'

Nadia in Jade Class) recommends 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid - Ugly Truth'. The book is about a boy called Greg who is starting to learn what it is like to grow up and finds it hard. He used to have a best friend called Rowley but they have a falling out and aren't friends for some time. However, when Greg is invited to a party, Rowley is also there and they make up to become best friends again. There are many funny parts in this book and I would recommend it to other children who like funny stories!
