

The Harry Gosling Herald

Pudsey Bear will be proud of us at Harry Gosling for the wonderful job we did today to raise money for Children in Need!

Our fantastic school councillors organised a great day, with the theme of 'Spotacular - Get your ears on!' See how spotacular we all looked today!

Councillors also organised a 'Spotty Pick game. If you picked a spot with Pudsey on, you won a prize! What a great idea! Thank you to all our councillors and to everyone for their generous donations. We have made a difference to lives of disadvantaged children and young people across the UK.

Look out next week for our Book Fair. There will be lots of great books to choose from!

Best wishes, Jennie

Don't forget:

'The book I recommend is...'

This week Scarlet class recommends:

'Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone'. We like this book because the magic makes it interesting and exciting. Furthermore, the mystery of the stone makes us want to keep turning the pages to read on and find out more.

Yusuf's favourite part was when the first years try on the magic sorting hat, which tells them which house they are in: Gryffindor, Ravenclaw, Hufflepuff or Slytherin. We all agree that you wouldn't want to be in Slytherin because that's the house for all the nasty characters. Another book that came close to also being recommended was the Horrid Henry. Lots of us liked this one for the mischief that happens! Have a read of both and see which you prefer!

HOUSE POINTS

Who will be the winning house this half term?
