

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 340

Friday 14th December 2018

The Harry Gosling Herald

Although we have much to look forward to next week in school, this is the final newsletter of the Autumn Term, and what a term it has been! Thank you to all the staff, children and parents for all working so hard.

This week we enjoyed seasonal shows starring our EYFS and Phase 2 children. The EYFS performed a wonderful musical, 'Mrs Wishy Washy: No Room at the Inn', telling the story of the very first Christmas.

We also announced the winners of our Christmas Card Competition. On Monday Phase 2 children enjoyed the panto of Pinocchio and then today performed their very own panto 'Snowman at Sunset'. What amazingly talented children we have!

Our festivities continue next week including Phase 3's 'Winter Festival', but don't forget that school finishes at 2pm next Friday. Hopefully Father Christmas (Santa) may have put in an appearance by then!

May I wish everyone who is celebrating a very happy Christmas. May 2019 bring peace, good health and joy to us all. Have a wonderful, restful holiday. Best wishes, Jennie

'The books we recommend ...'

This week Taybah in Purple Class would like to recommend Judy Moody, written by Megan McDonald.

'This book is about a girl training to be a detective. I like this book because there is a mystery and I love mysteries. When I read the book, it makes me imagine that I am a detective. I would recommend this book to a person that wants to be a detective so they know what to do and what you need.'
