

The Harry Gosling Herald

This year at Harry Gosling our theme is 'Making Every Moment Matter'. This week children who have been making every moment matter in their holiday were rewarded with a special bounce on our new bouncy castle! These children were our Family Homework Challenge Champions. Look out for the next Family Homework Challenge over half term!

Best wishes, Jennie

"This book is about a real survival expert whose name is Beck Granger. He was forced to parachute out of a smuggler plane and was set on his toughest challenge yet - to survive through the Sahara Desert.

I would recommend this book for people who enjoy adventure and survival stories because it teaches you tips on how to survive the real world!"
