

The Harry Gosling Herald

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

What a fantastic end to the first half term of the Spring Term! In our assembly yesterday we celebrated all the children who have been nominated for Shining Stars. What amazing achievements! We are so proud of you all. Today we celebrated our bell's 6th birthday with our annual 'Careers Day'. We welcomed 26 visitors! WOW! That's a record! They included IT and health professionals, members of the emergency services and armed forces, scientists, a fitness instructor, an electrician, a recruitment manager, a rugby player, a video director and editor ...to name but a few! Thank you Elizabeth and Miriam for organising the day, and thank you to everyone who suggested to friends and family that they should come along. But most of all a huge 'THANK YOU' to all our visitors for giving up their time to inspire us and help us think about our futures. We know they are all very busy and we are very grateful that they care so much about us and are happy to do this for us. Aren't we lucky? Best wishes, Jennie

'The books we recommend ...'

This week Yasir H from Blue Class recommends 'Mr Biff the Boxer' by Janet and Allan Ahlberg.

Mr Bop is a boxer who is as fit as a fiddle and the toughest man in town. There is also another boxer called Mr Biff. Mr Biff isn't as fit because he's been eating too many cream cakes! A note is sent to Mr Biff reminding him of his charity boxing match with Mr Bop. The dog, Bonzo Biff, was my favourite character because he has sharp teeth and guards the chair like a soldier. You will definitely enjoy this book if you like funny stories!
