

The Harry Gosling Herald

Welcome back! I hope you all had a very enjoyable half term break.

Our theme for this year is 'Making Every Moment Matter', and we can already see that lots of families have been making every moment of the half term break matter by completing some amazing activities together! Fantastic! Today was the deadline for our Family Homework Challenge. This half term the theme was 'Pirates' and it really seems to have captured lots of our imaginations and inspired us to create some amazing pieces of work. Children who have completed 5 or more homework activities will earn the title 'Family Homework Challenge Champion', and will be rewarded with a bounce on the bounce castle next week! Well done to you all!

Best wishes,
Jennie

WORLD BOOK DAY

Don't forget, the theme of this year's World Book Day next Thursday 7th March is 'Roald Dahl' and you can dress up as a Roald Dahl character from any of this books or stories. Who will you choose to be?

'The book we recommend ...'

This week Tahiyya in Sapphire Class recommends 'Thief' by Malorie Blackman. "It is about a girl who has moved to a new school. She's only been there for two weeks when someone accuses her of theft. She can't stand it anymore until a storm comes and transforms her into the future. Then the girl bumps into a terrible nightmare. I like this book because it is quite serious but also it is about something that might happen in your day to day life. It would appeal to everyone who loves magical and horror stories like Harry Potter."
