

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 264

Friday 16 December 2016

The Harry Gosling Herald

I can't believe it is already the end of term! It has been an amazing term, filled with fabulous achievements. Earlier this term, school councillors wrote to Father Christmas asking for some toys for each class to play with during 'Golden Time'. He was so impressed by how much effort children are making to behave well at all times that he brought us some new toys and activities and some boxes to store them all in as well!!

This week we all enjoyed our EYFS show and Phase 3's 'Winter Festival'. Both performances had it all—drama, song, dance, poetry, and music. We really have SUCH talented children in our school. Every single performer shone. Well done to you all!

May I wish everyone who is celebrating a very Happy Hannukah, Happy Christmas, and may I wish us all a peaceful, happy and healthy 2017.

Best wishes Jennie

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Charlotte has been reading

"The Girl Who Kicked The Hornets' Nest" by Stieg Larsson, the third in his trilogy of Swedish crime thrillers. It's really exciting (and sometimes a bit scary) and I can't put it down because I want to find out what happens next. I also enjoy reading it because of the main character; she's a strong young woman who is very brave and amazing with computers! "

Governors' meeting

Last week our Governing Body met. This term we have welcomed four new governors—Rachel Parker, Elizabeth Beanland, Tat-Seng Chiam and Morenibayo Bankole.

This week governors listened to a presentation from Emma Brown about lunchtimes and pupil behaviour. They also discussed the curriculum, local issues regarding schools and the work the school is doing with Stephen Hawking Primary School.

Thank you to all our governors for all the work they have contributed to the school throughout 2016.

PARENT INFORMATION MORNING

Next week, there will be no Parent Information Meeting. Our next meeting will be on Tuesday 10 January 2017, when I will be coming along to tell you about all the exciting things happening at Harry Gosling next term. I hope to see lots of you then. Everyone is welcome!
