

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 266

Friday 13 January 2017

The Harry Gosling Herald

This week we have been reminded of all the ways in which we can stay safe online. Thank you Elizabeth for getting us thinking and reminding us about the SMART rules in our Friday assembly.

There are lots of learning opportunities for parents this term at Harry Gosling, which I have outlined below. If you are interested in any of these, please speak to Shelley or anyone in the office.

With best wishes, Jennie

Don't forget:

*'Every time
our bell rings,
we step closer to our dreams'*

Please make sure you are here at 8.55 a.m. to start the day at 9.00 am.

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Daniel in Lilac Class has been reading

"The Good Immigrant", which is a collection of essays by writers who are immigrants to the United Kingdom about their experiences here. I became aware of the book because a friend from university contributed an essay to it. I also think it is important to try to understand what life is like for people who have different backgrounds to myself. So far, I am really enjoying it!
