

The Harry Gosling Herald

Today was our annual 'Careers Day' held in celebration of our bell's birthday! Over the course of the day, professionals from lots of different careers have kindly given up some of their time to tell us about their jobs and the skills they need to be successful in that career. Different classes have met people from a range of jobs including: a policewoman, a solicitor, a music manager, an archaeologist and a heart surgeon to name a few! It's been a great opportunity to hear and talk to people in professions we didn't know a lot about and become inspired for career paths in the future. I wonder who inspired you today? Thank you Anne and Bilqees for organising such a great Careers Day! It is the half term break next week, so I hope you all have a lovely holiday and come back well rested for the second half of term! I look forward to seeing you on Monday 20th February at 8.55 a.m!

Best wishes, Jennie

Don't forget:
