

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 271

Friday 24 February 2017

The Harry Gosling Herald

Next Thursday 2nd March is World Book Day and we are going to celebrate! Come to school dressed as your favourite storybook animal! World Book Day is not just a non-uniform day, it is all about reading! There will be lots of fun activities to learn from and prizes for the most creative and thoughtful outfits. Next Thursday we will also be finding out which children have earned a magic ticket for our Attendance Raffle. Have you come to school every day on time in February? We have sent home today the calendar for next school year's holidays. This will help everyone to plan any holidays well in advance so you won't miss a day of school. Let's show how much we love coming to school and how much we love reading at Harry Gosling!

Best wishes, Jennie

Don't forget:

*'Every time
our bell rings,
we step closer
to our dreams'*

Please make sure you are here at 8.55 a.m. to start the day at 9.00 am.

PSA—Saturday Cinema Trip

Many of you will remember the PSA cinema trip to Rich Mix cinema last year. Our wonderful PSA committee has organised another trip to take place on Saturday 11 March. You can sign up and pay your £5 deposit (returnable on the day) on 1st, 2nd and 3rd March. A letter has been sent with more details. Everyone is welcome!

HOUSE POINTS

After a very close competition, Ben Nevis held on last half term and was our winning house! Who will it be this half term?

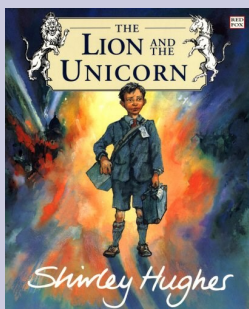

Everest	Kilimanjaro
Snowdon	Ben Nevis

Make sure you keep coming every day on time! Will you win a ticket for our £200 STAR Attenders prize?

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Brenda has been reading

"The Lion and the Unicorn" by Shirley Hughes! It's a story about a boy called Lenny whose dad goes off to fight in the second world war. Before he goes, he gives Lenny a brass badge of a lion and unicorn fighting each other and tells him to be brave. Lenny is sent away from his mum to the safety of the countryside. It's a really great story and, as you read it, you learn all about life in wartime and how the characters feel. There are also beautiful illustrations. I would highly recommend this book. It's a must-read! "
