

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 272

Friday 3 March 2017

The Harry Gosling Herald

What an exciting day we had yesterday! Everyone looked AMAZING in their World Book Day costumes (more pictures next week!), and we all enjoyed lots of fun reading activities throughout the day! Anne's book club have been reading all the books which were nominated for the Blue Peter Book Awards, and our school was one of the schools picked to judge the winner. Here are three of our very own judges! All the top floor classrooms have copies of these books so everyone can enjoy them and make up their own minds up about which is their favourite. We also had our STAR Attenders raffle this week. Tickets for all the children who have come to school every day on time in February were added to the raffle. Was your number put into the tombola? Best wishes, Jennie

Year 5 and Year 6 residential trips

There are still spaces for the Year 5 trip to Blaxhall and the Year 6 trip to Hautbois in June. If you are interested, please speak to the class teachers, Elizabeth and anyone in the office and they will be able to help. These are a wonderful learning opportunity, and are very good value for money as the school contributes significantly towards the costs.

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Robert has been reading

"The Girl with Seven Names" by Hyeonseo Lee. It's an adventure story about a girl who leaves her own country, North Korea and goes first to China and then to South Korea. I enjoyed this book, because it gave a firsthand account into a country that we know very little about. I was particularly surprised by the stark differences in our lives compared to that of someone living in a modern day dictatorship. Although the story is sad at times, it has a happy ending and you cannot help but root for Hyeonseo as she makes her perilous journey out of North Korea, the place she is so familiar with.
