

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 278

Friday 7 April 2017

The Harry Gosling Herald

What a fantastic week it has been to end our amazing Spring Term! This week has been our International Festival of learning. Our value of 'Equality' is all about respecting one another by improving our understanding of each other. What better example than this week. This festival is an opportunity for us to explore our world, and to learn about places and people all over the world. We all enjoyed sharing traditional foods and proudly wearing traditional clothes at our International Feasts. Thank you to all the families who so kindly brought in such tasty foods for us all to enjoy. It was absolutely great to see so many grown ups joining us as well. Our International Exhibition showcased the fantastic learning we have all been doing. I was so impressed by the confidence of the class representatives. Our International Performance brought the house down, as it does every year! All the acts were planned and rehearsed by the children themselves. Thank you to Claire and Emma for helping them and for putting together such a great show. Overleaf is a montage of magic moments from yesterday's show! May I wish everyone who is celebrating a very happy Easter. Have a wonderful holiday! Best wishes, Jennie

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Momota has been reading ..'The BFG'. It is about a young girl Sophie meeting the big, friendly giant. There is something frightening about giants, especially the thought of giants snatching children out of bed at night with a hand through the window. This is exactly how The BFG begins. But the BFG does not eat "human beans", but blows good dreams into the windows of sleeping children instead. This part interested me the most and created many discussions with my own children, who I am reading the book to. This is an excellent work of fantasy. I recommend it to everyone.
