The Harry Gosling Herald

I hope you all had a great holiday. It was wonderful to see everyone's smiling faces on Monday.

There are two new smiling faces in our office this term. Let me introduce you to Sima, our new School Business Manager Assistant and Nadira, our new Receptionist (photos left to right). They are both delighted to have joined our Harry Gosling team and are really looking forward to getting to know you all.

We've had a very musical start to our term. On Tuesday we welcomed back our old friends, John, Dave and Winston, who performed some fantastic jazz for us all and we all had a chance to join in too! Lucky Year 4 classes are working with John over five days, and will be performing in their own concert next Wednesday! Best wishes, Jennie

DATES!

Don't forget that next Monday is a bank holiday and the school will be closed. We will see you again on Tuesday at 8.55 a.m.

We are going to be used as a polling station for the general election on June 8th, so the school will be closed that day.

Don't forget:
*'Every time
our bell rings,
we step closer to our dreams'*

Please make sure you are here at 8.55 a.m. to start the day at 9.00 am.

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Ayesha has been reading ..'Charlie and the Chocolate Factory'. Charlie walks past the chocolate factory every day wondering if he will win a golden ticket to Willy Wonka's chocolate factory. He is so poor, he doesn't have any money. Charlie eventually wins a ticket to the chocolate factory. It's a place where they make "eatable marshmallow pillows," "hot ice cream for cold days," "fizzy lifting drinks" that make you float, and "rainbow drops" that let you "spit in six different colours." And, in the end, it's just the place for Charlie. A few things go wrong for four children who have won tickets to the factory and they are pretty unusual. For anyone who has not read the story, I will leave it to you to find out!!!

UNIFORM REMINDER

Just a reminder as we start our new term, that everyone should wear plain black shoes with no colours on them. As it gets warmer, remember that open-toe sandals are not suitable for school. School caps are available. Thank you.

HOUSE POINTS

Which house has made a great start to the term?

Everest 775	Kilimanjaro 671
Snowdon 694	Ben Nevis 762

PARENT INFORMATION MORNING

Don't forget, I will be talking to parents about all the exciting plans for the summer term. Please come along on Tuesday at 9.10 a.m.

Thank you Elizabeth for reminding us all about how to stay safe online. Next week Jo Potkins will be leading our Friday assembly.
