

What's been happening in school this week?

The Harry Gosling Herald

This week, I would like to introduce you to our new House Captains. There are lots of ways to demonstrate our values at Harry Gosling. The job of a house captain is to be a role model of our school values: responsibility, excellence, equality and teamwork.

Year 6 took part in a democratic vote to choose our new house captains. The successful children were :

Everest: Mahdi and Tayyibah

Kilimanjaro: Madihah and Nabil

Snowdon: Ibrahim and Hana

Ben Nevis: Amina and Musa I

If you don't know who these children are, soon you will be able to spot them as they will be proudly wearing these special badges.

They will help to collect our weekly house points, run events such as Sports Day and encourage and support their house to always achieve highly.

I'm sure they'll do a fantastic job representing their houses this year!

Best wishes, Jennie

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Following the success of last year's weekly 'I am reading...' book recommendations made by adults in the school, this year it will be the children's turn! We want EVERYONE at Harry Gosling to love reading, so each week a different class will be publishing a book review for the whole school. Jade Class will be starting us off next week. I wonder whose book review will be chosen as the class' favourite?

PARENT INFORMATION MORNING

Next week, the School Nurse team will be coming to talk to the parents of Year 6 pupils about the health screening they have planned. Janice and Bernadette will then be talking about secondary transition. Please come along on Tuesday at 9 a.m. to find out more.

HOUSE POINTS

Which house has made a flying start and earned the most points this week? It's close!

Everest 1097	Kilimanjaro 1166
Snowdon 1152	Ben Nevis 1148

Thank you to all the children and adults who told us all about their summer holidays in today's assembly. Next Friday, Elizabeth will be reminding us how to stay safe online. All welcome at 9.10 a.m.
