

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 295

Friday 6 October 2017

The Harry Gosling Herald

No two weeks are ever the same at Harry Gosling! It has been another very busy week with lots of visitors helping us with our learning. On Tuesday we welcomed Ofsted inspector, Lou Anderson. Thank you to everyone for making her so welcome and showing and telling her all about life at Harry Gosling. I know she really enjoyed meeting everyone. She will be sending us a letter about her visit in a few weeks, and we will make sure that every family receives a copy. On Wednesday, children in Phase 3 enjoyed a production of Shakespeare's play, 'The Tempest'. It was fantastic. Yesterday Year 6 had these unusual reptilian visitors which really broadened their science knowledge! In the evening our Governors met to discuss all the plans for the year ahead. They discussed the new way we are learning about different religions and how we are planning to spend a special fund called the 'Pupil Premium' grant. I hope you have all received letters about the forthcoming election for a new parent Governor. Make sure your nomination is with us by 4:00pm on Tuesday 17th October. Best wishes, Jennie

Autumn
Harvest

Next week we have the opportunity to make a difference to the lives of people living in our community by bringing in contributions to our Harvest collection for the local foodbank. Check your book bag for the letter with all the details!

Don't forget that half term is fast approaching. We are closed during the week beginning Monday 23rd October. School will open again on Monday 30th October.

Don't forget:
*'Every time
our bell rings,
we step closer to our dreams'*

Please make sure you are here at 8.55 a.m. to start the day at 9.00 am.

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Ishrat in Orange class is reading...Dr Seuss' 'How the Grinch Stole Christmas'.

'The book is about a Grinch who destroys Christmas. I like this book because it tells me what is right and what is wrong. I like the exciting adventures that he has. I get excited when the problem of the story comes!'

PARENT INFORMATION MORNING

Next week Emma (Deputy Head) and Janice (Family Learning Co-ordinator) will be talking about all the ways parents can get involved at school. Please come along on Tuesday at 9 a.m. to find out more!
