HARRY GOSLING AND STEPHEN HAWKING PUPILS PERFORM IN 'MACBETH' AT THE STRATFORD CIRCUS THEATRE

For the past few months some children from Years 5 and 6 have been rehearsing with children from Stephen Hawking Primary School for a public performance of Shakespeare's play 'Macbeth' in a real-life theatre. Yesterday they performed to a packed audience, and children from Years 5 and 6 were lucky enough to be there. It was absolutely fantastic! Thankyou to Jess (Emerald Class) and Liz from Stephen Hawking School who have worked so hard with the children. We were so proud of you all!

Best wishes, Jennie

A LETTER FROM THE QUEEN!

Maryam in Yellow Class had a brilliant idea. She had made a flag and thought that the Queen herself would like it. So Robert and Yellow Class set about writing to the Queen and sending her the flag. And look what happened! They received this super letter from the Queen's Lady in Waiting with lots more information to learn about the Queen. The Queen clearly loved Maryam's flag, and thought it was very kind of her to make it!

CHILDREN IN NEED

The school council has organised some brilliant fundraising events which will take place next Friday 17th November. We will be having a non-uniform day, asking everyone to pay £1 to come to school in their 'Spotacular!' clothes. There will be a prize for the best spotty dressers. Children will also be able to do some Pudsey crafts for a donation of 50p. Children in Need is a very worthwhile cause, helping disadvantaged children and young people across the UK. Let's see if we can raise even more money this year!

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Hamim in Emerald class is reading...

"Horrible Histories, Vile Victorians'. It is a book about the Victorian period and tells the reader lots of information about this era. I would recommend this book to any child between the age of 7-11. The book is a mixture of historical facts and humorous jokes! I enjoyed this book because it made me laugh and hooked me in. It made me want to carry on reading it every day and I can't wait to read after school. I have read four Horrible History books and I want to read the whole collection. I would describe this book in four words as educational, fun, comical and amazing!"

PEER REVIEW DAY

Last week we welcomed the Headteachers and Deputy Headteachers from Smithy Street and Manorfield Primary Schools to spend a day with us looking at how children learn at Harry Gosling. Thank you for making them so welcome. They really enjoyed their day in school!

GOVERNOR ELECTION

I hope you managed to meet the nominees for parent governor this week.

Don't forget that ballot papers should be returned by midday Monday 13th November by hand in the ballot box by the front desk of the office.
