

The Harry Gosling Herald

Last Friday I promised you more detail about the fantastic exhibition of art work produced by Year 3. Here are some proud artists showing you their work! This week our school councillors went to visit the Houses of Parliament and saw and learned all about how our government works and how laws are made. This helped them to understand more fully how democracy works in our country. Our school council is a democratic system which means that every child's voice can be heard in school through their school councillor. Therefore, being a school councillor at Harry Gosling is a very responsible job.

Best wishes, Jennie

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Neha from Blue Class is reading 'Secret Rescuers: The Storm Dragon' by Paula Harrison.

'It is a book about a girl called Sophy, who finds a baby firebird and tries to rescue it from hunters. A girl gives her a magic necklace that lets her talk to animals. I really enjoyed this book because I'd love to talk to animals and I found it very interesting. It's also a chapter book with lots of pages.'

PARENT INFORMATION

Next week on Tuesday 12th December Naheeda Begum from Tower Hamlets and Rujina (Pupil Services Manager) will be holding an Online Application Workshop to help parents in Rainbow classes to apply online for Reception places for September. The workshop will be from 9-10 a.m. in the 'Learning Hub' on the middle floor. Please come along to find out more!

In January, we will be letting you know about what events we have planned for the Spring Term. I will also be meeting parents on Tuesday 9th January to talk about the term ahead, and to take feedback from parents.

Thank you to all the children who performed in assembly today. It was a great celebration of all the musical talents we have in school. Next Friday will be our Shining Stars assembly. How have you been shining this term? All welcome on Friday at 9 a.m.
