

What's been happening in school this week?

Issue 310

Friday 23 February 2018

The Harry Gosling Herald

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our Number Day fundraising. We raised a fantastic £173.86.

Best wishes, Jennie

INTERNATIONAL PERFORMANCE

The auditions for our International Performance will take place on Wednesday 7 March. If you would like to audition, make sure you return your slip to Emma or Claire by Thursday 1 March!

WORLD BOOK DAY

Next Thursday 1st March, it is World Book Day. This year our theme is "Literary Bears."

Everyone can come to school dressed up as a bear from a book that they have read. It can be from a fiction or non-fiction book, but remember this is not just a non-uniform day. Think carefully about the bear costume you are going to make, as there will be a prize for putting the most effort and creativity into your costume.

We have lots of fun learning lined up, including a Teddy Bears' Picnic! It promises to be a GRRRRRRRRRRREAT Day!

WHAT ARE YOU READING THIS WEEK?

Amin from Emerald Class is reading, 'Tom Gates: Everything's Amazing' by Liz Pichon. "It is about a very misunderstood boy who plays tricks on his sister and who sometimes (but not always) gets his own way. I like it because it goes into Tom Gate's life in a lot of detail and it is very funny. My favourite parts of this book are when the main character plays pranks. I would recommend this book to anybody, especially people who like 'The Diary of a Wimpy Kid'. I would give this book 10/10. In my opinion, it is the best book ever!"
