

The Harry Gosling Herald

What a brilliant way to end our Spring Term with our annual International Festival! On Tuesday we shared food from around the world in our International Feasts. Thank you to everyone who donated food so generously. It was lovely to see so many families celebrating with us. Yesterday we held an exhibition of all the international work from across the school in the Community Room. What amazing learning we have been doing! In the afternoon, we were entertained with acts from around the world in our 'International Performance'. It gets better every year! We saw some fantastically creative acts. Congratulations to all the children who took part, and thank you to Claire and Emma for organising such a great show.

Have a wonderful holiday!
Best wishes Jennie

'The book we recommend ...'

This week Rayyan A in Purple Class recommends 'The Boy Who Could Fly', written by Sally Gardner. "This book is about a boy who could fly and a magic fairy. I like this book because it is really funny. This book is perfect for children who love to laugh. When I read this book, it makes me feel like I am the boy flying around. I would recommend this book to anyone who has a good imagination and enjoys a laugh."
