

The Harry Gosling Herald

I hope everyone had a great half term break, and a very enjoyable holiday on Tuesday. We really enjoyed celebrating together at our Eid parties this week. Thank you to everyone who gave food so generously and joined us at our parties.

This week we welcomed back our old friends John, Dave and Winston. They will be working with Year 4 over the next couple of weeks on their jazz project. Yesterday they treated us to a jazz concert. It was fantastic! We can't wait to see Year 4's performance in two weeks!

Today was the last day for handing in your Family Homework Challenges. I wonder how many champions will be bouncing next Friday? Best wishes, Jennie

SUN SAFETY

We are at that time of the year when the sun is very strong—even on cloudy days. So don't forget:
 Slip on a shirt, slop on the 30+ sunscreen, slap on a hat, seek shade or shelter, and, if you would like to, slide on some glasses used to block out sun.

'The book we recommend ...'

This week Pink Class recommends:

'Funnybones'! This book is written by Janet and Allan Ahlberg. This book is about a skeleton family with a skeleton dog. They sing a funny song and try to scare each other. We love the part when the dog breaks into a pile of bones. We also like the part when the dog shouts and makes them jump! It is a funny book and we would give it 10 out of 10!
