

The Harry Gosling Herald

Look at these examples of work done by some of our Family Homework Challenge champions. They were rewarded today with a bounce on our bouncy castle! It is really wonderful to see how many families are showing great 'teamwork' at home and working together to achieve great things! Our champions were joined on the bouncy castle by the members of another great team, Kilimanjaro house, who won the house points trophy last half term!

Congratulations to you all!

'The book we recommend ...'

'Aliens Love Under-pants' by Claire Freedman is Yellow Class' most requested book to read at storytime.

The picture book tells the story of why aliens come down from space to visit Earth. Perhaps you thought it was to learn about human beings...well, actually, it is because they really love PANTS! The aliens love all types of underpants; spotty ones, stripy ones, huge ones and tiny ones. They steal the pants they like and take them back into space to keep as souvenirs. We love this story because it is hilarious and colourful. Make sure you look after your underpants!
