

Harry Gosling Weekly News

24th January 2020

This week we welcomed teachers visiting from Denmark. They were really interested to learn about our federation with Stephen Hawking School, as well as how we use computers in our learning. They were very impressed with what they saw! -Jennie and Emma

VALUES AWARDS

Pink: Samira— Responsibility - working so hard every day in Early Words.
Aidan— Excellence- writing a super recount (with finger spaces) about our trip.

Green: Maryam Shah – Responsibility—catching up with her recount planning after being absent from school.
Humaira – Excellence - she is able to tell her teacher all about what she's been reading.

Blue: Saira - Excellence—great enthusiasm when practising the song for our class assembly.
Hazirah - Excellence—great reasoning when explaining fractions.

Orange: Abdullah- Responsibility and Excellence- behaving and engaging well on our trip. He observed and listened well. He learnt so much, like how to tell if the Queen is in Buckingham Palace!

Kashifah- Equality- always kind and polite to everyone. We often see her helping others in class and on the playground.

Lilac: Raihaan - Teamwork—working well with his group and sharing ideas in PE.
Ana - Excellence—asking a great question to our visitor in RE.

Purple: Zaara— Excellence—reading lots at home, and trying really hard in Maths.
Tayyibah—Responsibility—listening very carefully in Maths, and applying all we have learned when writing.

Scarlet: Saara – Excellence – using a wide range of vocabulary and synonyms in her work.
Shaheed – Teamwork – working hard in his paired work and using full sentences when talking to his partner.

Amber: Ihsan - Teamwork—sharing his excellent understanding of words in PSHE.
Zainab - Excellence and Responsibility - working hard in her swimming lessons.
